This is the first time we are exhibiting at FHA. FHA is our top choice because it is the most important show in this region. Through FHA, we hope to grow our business successfully in this part of the world where our business is not currently present. We have met distributors from Australia, Hong Kong, Korea, New Zealand and Taiwan, and it reinforces our decision that this is the best platform to introduce our products to markets in this region. ”

Tom Mitchell, Business Development Director, Asia Pacific & Americas, De'Longhi Group, Hong Kong

FHA is one of our first forays into the hospitality and B2B sectors. We are here to address a market that is looking for innovative solutions and to demonstrate the benefits which our automation technology can deliver. ”

Sanjin Becirbasic, Head of Sales, RM Gastro S.R.O., Czech Republic

We are trying to break into new markets in Southeast Asia. Being here at FHA gives us a valuable opportunity to understand more about the market needs in this region and how our offerings can fit in the interests. Looking forward to meet visitors from around the world at the show. ”
