Feedback

“This was my first virtual event and I would strongly recommend people to attend. The matchmaking service is very effective and the discussions during the video meetings were positive. The webinar's attended during the conference were also very insightful and the ability to view them at convenient times was a great feature.”

Mark Canning, Head of International Business

“Omnia Health Live is a great platform and allowed me to search out key attendees.”

Rex Bowden, Managing Director, Catalyze

With overwhelming response

"It is one of the best, well organised virtual event. I would highly recommend to all physicians worldwide."

Muhammad Khalid
Physician

"The content was good covering important topics and it's commendable by organising such conference of Omnia Health Live at this difficult time."

Thirumaran Natarajan Somu
ENT Specialist

"This is our first time that I attend virtual conference. I really enjoyed! This conference provides opportunity to get up-to-date information in a short period of time! Excellent presentations, high topics, great speakers! Congratulation once again!"

Brankica Vasiljevic
Head of Maternity and Child Health Service

"This webinar gave me an opportunity to earn my CME despite of the restriction. This kind of event is really informative especially at this time of great fear. I hope that Omnia will be able to do this again. Thank you so much."
